Publication Policy

The undergraduate catalog is published annually by the University of Florida and has been adopted as a rule of the university pursuant to the provision of Chapter 120 of the Florida Statutes.

Published editions of this official record correspond to an academic year and will remain in effect as published from the Summer B (June) term through the following Summer A (late May) term.

The undergraduate catalog: provides official university rules, policies and regulations; it establishes minimum eligibility requirements for admission and reflects degree requirements; it provides approved calendar and curricular information; and it contains general information about the university community, the university and its services and facilities.

Changes will be made to this academic record to correct errors or omissions. The university is not responsible for information obtained through Internet links from this catalog to other websites. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of information. However, all courses, course descriptions, degree requirements and fees are subject to change.
