UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG

Accreditation

The University of Florida is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award associate's, baccalaureate, master's, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees. The University of Florida also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels. Questions about the accreditation of the University of Florida should be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097, by calling 404.679.4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (www.sacscoc.org (http://www.sacscoc.org/)).

Publication Policy

The undergraduate catalog is published annually by the University of Florida and has been adopted as a rule of the university pursuant to the provision of Chapter 120 of the Florida Statutes.

Published editions of this official record correspond to an academic year and will remain in effect as published from the Summer B (June) term through the following Summer A (late May) term.

The undergraduate catalog provides official university rules, policies, and regulations; it establishes minimum eligibility requirements for admission and reflects degree requirements; it provides approved calendar and curricular information; and it contains general information about the university community, the university, and its services and facilities.

Changes will be made to this academic record to correct errors or omissions. The university is not responsible for information obtained through Internet links from this catalog to other websites. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of information. However, all dates and deadlines, courses, course descriptions, degree requirements, and fees are subject to change.

Unless otherwise indicated in the course description, all courses at the University of Florida are taught in English, with the exception of specific foreign language courses.
