LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE MINOR

The landscape architecture minor provides an overview of the profession, an introduction to environmental and cultural issues and to design, planning and management theory and applications. This minor does not qualify a student for practice or for professional licensure.

About this Program

- College: Design, Construction and Planning
- Credits: 15, completed with minimum grades of C
- Related Landscape Architecture Programs