AFRICAN STUDIES MINOR

A minor in African studies provides a solid foundation for careers in teaching, research and other professional work for which knowledge of Africa is essential. The faculty is composed of more than 100 members campus-wide who teach courses with African content.

About this Program

• College: Liberal Arts and Sciences
• Credits: 15, completed with minimum grades of C
• Contact: 427 Grinter Hall, 352.392.2183
• Additional Information
• Related African Studies Programs