Department Information

Anthropology lies at the intersection of the multiple approaches to the study of humankind that characterize other disciplines – biological, social, cultural, historical, linguistic, cognitive, material, technological and aesthetic – because of its unique holistic perspective. These multiple approaches are encapsulated in the four traditional subfields that have composed the discipline since its establishment in the 19th century: cultural (<http://sites.clas.ufl.edu/anthropology/department-subfields/cultural-anthropology/>), archaeological (<http://sites.clas.ufl.edu/anthropology/department-subfields/archaeology/>), biological (<http://sites.clas.ufl.edu/anthropology/department-subfields/biological-anthropology/>) and linguistic (<http://sites.clas.ufl.edu/anthropology/department-subfields/linguistic-anthropology/>) anthropology.
