COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR

Effective communication skills at the personal and professional levels are essential prerequisites for success in today’s world. The communication studies minor provides an interdisciplinary forum for the study of communication and the opportunity for students to add indispensable tools to their educational program.

About this Program

• College: Liberal Arts and Sciences
• Credits: 18, completed with minimum grades of C and no optional S-U
• Contact: 402 Rolfs Hall, 352.392.5421
• Additional Information