

PUBLIC LEADERSHIP MINOR

The interdisciplinary Public Leadership minor, offered by the Bob Graham Center for Public Service, is for students interested in careers in the public and private sectors and those interested in acquiring skills to develop as civically responsible citizens. Through coursework and practical experience, students gain the skills and knowledge necessary for effective and ethical leadership careers. The minor complements a variety of majors, including the natural sciences, humanities, social sciences, journalism, and business.

Center Information

The Bob Graham Center was established in 2006 with the goal of creating a community of students, scholars, and citizens who share a commitment to revitalizing the civic culture of Florida and the nation. Former Governor and U. S. Senator Bob Graham founded the Center as a place where students acquire the skills and knowledge to become informed citizens, with the expressed purpose of strengthening the nation's democratic institutions.

Curriculum

- Public Leadership Minor

Students pursuing the minor are expected to engage in the intellectual life of the Bob Graham Center for Public Service by participating in public lectures, workshops, seminars, and civic engagement opportunities the Center offers.

Students must have a 2.75 GPA for admission to the minor and should normally apply during the sophomore or junior year, though they may apply later as long as they will still be able to complete all requirements for the minor within a timely manner that does not delay graduation. Students may apply for the minor through ONE.UF (<https://one.uf.edu/login/>).

Students must complete a minimum of six credits of coursework exclusive to the minor that cannot count toward their major(s) or other minors.
