WAR, STATECRAFT AND STRATEGY MINOR

The multidisciplinary minor in War, Statecraft and Strategy (WSS) offers practical and theoretical understanding of intelligence, diplomacy, international relations, military strategy, defense policy, homeland security, conflict resolution and the related tools of statecraft to national defense policy formulation and power projection. This minor is ideal for students interested in the complex interplay between history, politics, defense, economics, technology and strategic decision-making.

School Information

The Hamilton School for Classical and Civic Education is devoted to research and teaching on Western civilization and the principles of a free society. Here students can see beyond their horizons to prepare for lifetimes of leadership by studying the greatest works of the Western tradition and beyond. Open inquiry and the pursuit of excellence, grounded in Western civilization and the American experience, are the foundation of an education that will lead our students to thrive, not just while at the University of Florida, but throughout their lives and careers. Liberal education promises to be a transformative experience and at the university, the "meeting place of the greats." The Hamilton School for Classical and Civic Education fulfills that promise.
