The Center for Gender, Sexualities, and Women's Studies Research offers the MA degree in Women's Studies, with thesis and non-thesis MA options, as well as two Graduate Certificate options. These options give students the opportunity to take advantage of scholarship in this dynamic field, and to become acquainted with different research perspectives and methodologies. Students pursuing interdisciplinary graduate work in the Center learn about feminist, intersectional, and other theoretical approaches and methodologies for examining the roles of gender, race/ethnicity, sexualities, and other sociocultural systems, and they learn about how to transform these systems.

The Center offers a regular colloquium series, frequently sponsors speakers, and distributes a newsletter each fall and spring. The Center in Uster Hall houses archives, a small library, offices, and meeting space.
