

EPIDEMIOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Chair: Linda Cottler

Ph.D. Program Director: Cindy Prins

M.S. Program Director: Catherine Woodstock Striley

The Department of Epidemiology – jointly governed by both the College of Public Health and Health Professions and the College of Medicine – offers the Doctor of Philosophy degree in epidemiology, Masters of Science in epidemiology, as well as the Master of Public Health degree with a concentration in epidemiology (described here (<http://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/colleges-departments/public-health-professions/interdisciplinary-departments/public-health-mph/>)). Minimum requirements for these degrees are described in the Graduate Degrees (<http://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/degrees/>) section of this catalog. The programs in the Department are designed to prepare students for careers in academic research environments, careers in public health agencies and health-related institutions, and for consultation, especially in the biomedical fields.

More information on these programs is available at the program page below and at the department website: <http://epidemiology.php.ufl.edu>.
