PUBLIC RELATIONS

PUR 6608 International Public Relations 3 Credits
Grading Scheme: Letter Grade
Factors to assist conceptualization and execution of international public relations activities. Explores the relationship between environmental variables and international public relations practices. Review of empirical evidence about public relations practices in other countries and methodological issues pertaining to conducting research.